NCAA Tournament Success

With 11 appearances in school history, the University of Utah is no stranger to the NCAA Tournament. Since 1998, the Utes have become a fixture in the tournament and have developed a rich history of success in that short span.

"Every year we play a nationally-competitive schedule to prepare for the NCAA Tournament," head coach Beth Launiere says. "Our goal is to continue to go to the NCAA Tournament year-in and year-out."

The team has participated in the NCAA Tournament 11 times (1998-2006, 2008 and 2013) and advanced to the second round nine times. The 2001 and 2008 teams both went 2-1 in the tournament, concluding each season with a loss in the Sweet 16. The Utes lost to eventual national champion Stanford to conclude the 2001 campaign, while the 2008 team saw its season come to a close at No. 5 Washington.

The Utes qualified for the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 1998 and advanced to the second round in each of their first three appearances.

The team's regional semifinal appearance in 2001 was the first time in Utah volleyball history that a team had advanced to regionals. The Utes topped Texas Tech, 3-0, and Utah State, 3-1, in the first and second rounds on Crimson Court. Utah fell to host Stanford, 3-1, in Palo Alto in the regional.

In 2003, Utah was down 0-2 to No. 13 Santa Clara in 2003 in the first round before rallying for a thrilling five-set victory. The following night, the Utes fell in three sets to host Washington.

Utah played host to the first and second rounds for the second time in 2005 after winning the Mountain West Conference's automatic bid.

All-Americans

Kim Turner (2000-03) • Third Team (2003)

A 6-2 middle blocker, Turner was among the top players in the country in 2003. She ranked 18th in the nation in blocks per set (1.48) and 31st in hitting percentage (.367). Turner's senior year ended with Co-MWC Player of the Year honors for the second year in a row as she led the MWC in hitting percentage (.434) and points per set (5.61). During conference play, she had 231 kills, which set the league's single-season record. Turner ended her four years ranked first in the Utah career record books in kills (1,620), total blocks (670), block assists (589) and is now second in hitting percentage (.324).

Lyndsey Henderson (2002-04) • Honorable Mention (2004)

Henderson averaged 1.67 blocks per game which ranked second in the conference and eighth nationally. Offensively, she racked up 3.59 kills per game and hit .322 for the season, checking in at third and fifth in the MWC, respectively. The 6-5 middle blocker established herself as one of the team's go-to threats, bagging double-digit kills in 25 of the 30 matches this season. Among that string is a career-best 22 kills in leading Utah to an upset victory over then-No. 6 UCLA. Her list of accolades also included AVCA all-region honors, all-MWC and MWC Player of the Week (Oct. 18).

Shelly Sommerfeldt (2002-05) • Honorable Mention (2005)

Sommerfeldt wrapped up her 2005 campaign by winning her third all-conference award and began the postseason winning all-MWC Tournament and Tournament MVP accolades. She ranked sixth in the MWC in racking up 3.54 kills per game and hit .229 for the year and was 10th in the league in averaging 2.89 digs in addition to 0.92 blocks.

Airial Salvo (2005-06) • Second Team (2006)

Salvo, a 6-0 outside hitter, was named the MWC Player of the Year in 2006, averaging 4.13 kills, 3.35 digs, 0.78 blocks and 0.45 aces per set. She led the Utes and the MWC with 49 aces on the year. Salvo completed her Utah career with 3.73 kills, 0.34 aces, 2.90 kills and 0.83 blocks per set and also had a hitting percentage of .269.

Whitney Webb (2004-07) • Third Team (2006)

Webb had a breakout season as a junior in 2006 for the Utes, averaging 3.13 kills, 2.67 digs and 1.29 blocks per set. She ranked 63rd in the nation in hitting percentage, and led all MWC outside hitters with a .344 hitting percentage. Webb was a significant factor in helping Utah lead the nation in blocks (3.71 per set) while ranking seventh in hitting percentage (.323). In addition to All-America honors, Webb was also an All-West Region and all-conference selection in 2006. She finished her career with 2.77 kills and 0.99 blocks per set.

Lori Baird (2005-08) • Third Team (2008)

Baird was recognized as an AVCA All-West Region selection as well as the MWC Co-Player of the Year. Baird finished the season second in the MWC and 16th in the country with 1.39 blocks per set. She became the 10th member of Utah's 1,000-kill club and finished her career with the Utes seventh in school history with 1,236 career kills. Baird led the team with 3.05 kills per set, which finished fourth in the MWC. Baird finished her career second in school history with 584 career block assists and third with 631 career total blocks. Baird posted seven career double-doubles, three in 2008, including a school-record 16 block assists to go along with 11 digs in a 3-0 win at BYU.

Emillie Toone (2004-08) • Honorable Mention (2006, 2008)

Toone earned AVCA Honorable Mention recognition for the second time in her career after ending her career as the most efficient attacker in school history (.345). Toone led the MWC and was 12th in the nation with a school-record .393 hitting percentage, breaking her own record of .369 (set in 2006). She also tied or led Utah in kills six times during 2008. On the block, Toone finished her Ute career second in school history in total blocks (635) and third in block assists (583). Toone finished 2008 third in the conference and 19th nationally with 1.37 blocks per set, while leading or tying for the team lead in blocking during 13 matches this season.

Shelby Dalton (2011-Present) • Honorable Mention (2013)

Dalton earned AVCA All-American Honorable Mention status and first-team all-region honors after leading the team with 2.62 kills per set this season, finished second on the squad with a .276 hitting percentage (minimum five attack attempts per match). She was third on the team, 12th in the Pac-12 and 128th in the NCAA with 1.10 blocks per set in addition to earning a spot on the Pac-12 All-Academic Second Team.

Utah Volleyball Facilities

Huntsman Center

Regarded as one of the top college arenas in the nation since opening its doors in 1969, the Jon M. Huntsman Center has provided an imposing home venue advantage for Utah's basketball and gymnastics teams. And during the fall of 2013, it became the permanent home for the Ute volleyball team.

In its first full season in the Huntsman Center, the Utah volleyball team went 8-5. The Utes won the 2013 Utah Classic with wins over Utah State, Fairfield and Northern Iowa along with wins over Colorado, Washington State, Arizona State, Arizona and Oregon State.

For a structure in its 43rd year of existence, a feeling of newness still pervades underneath the silver dome. But don't let the pristine picture fool you. As serene as the Huntsman Center may look empty, when the Utes are on the floor and fans are in the stands, the place transforms into a madhouse.

A landmark on the U. campus, the Jon M. Huntsman Center is the perfect place to watch a sporting event. With 15,000 chair seats assuring a great view from anywhere in the arena, the Huntsman Center is the largest venue in the Pac-12 Conference.

From its perch at the southeast end of campus, the Huntsman Center stands sentinel over the University of Utah. Inside the facility are athletic coaches' and administrative offices and locker rooms. The enormous reflective silver dome is the largest of its kind in the world. Underground tunnels stretching 2,220 feet connect the arena with the four-building physical education complex.

The famous "steel cloud," a huge mass of steel and concrete, hangs from the dome's interior and holds the scoreboard, and the public address and lighting systems. The building was engineered in such a way that the cloud actually holds the dome in place.

Prior to the 2011-12 season, the entire Huntsman Center playing floor was replaced. A new, $1.3 million scoreboard was installed in the fall of 2007. The new scoreboard features an LED ring by Optotech around the bottom and four LCD video screens, which provide brighter, clearer pictures than ever before seen in the Huntsman Center. The scoreboard also features a player stat board and is 1.5 times bigger than its predecessor.

Crimson Court

Utah's Crimson Court is one of the finest volleyball-only practice facilities in the nation.

One of the most intimidating competition venues in the country from 2000 through 2012, Utah racked up a 130-35 (.788) home record and has tallied a 75-19 (.798) mark in conference home matches during that span. Overall from 1994 through 2013, the Utes went 189-65 (.750) at Crimson Court with a 113-37 (.753) mark against league foes

The court was built prior to the 1994 season and officially dedicated on Sept. 9, 1994. It was christened with a win over Montana State and a marathon five-set victory over San Jose State in the Utah Classic. A new playing surface was installed during the summer of 2011.

The largest crowd ever recorded at Crimson Court assembled on Sept. 25, 2009, as 1,747 fans watched Utah rally from down two sets to defeat BYU. The near-capacity crowd also was treated to a 35th Anniversary celebration and Alumni Reunion.

Utah set the single-season attendance record in 2001. The Utes hosted 12,020 fans over the course of 15 matches, averaging 801 fans per contest.

Crimson Court was a launching pad for 10 of the Utes' NCAA Tournament appearances and also played host to the NCAA Tournament, entertaining opening-round action in 2001 and 2005.

Utah Volleyball to Use 'All-Around' Approach to Continue to Climb Pac-12 Ranks

Utes to feature six seniors and renewed commitment to all-around game.

Versatility became the focal point of the Utah volleyball team during the offseason as the Utes look to improve on their 21-13 overall record and a seventh-place tie in the Pac-12 Conference standings in 2013.

"Moving up the ranks is a good way to put it and that's our plan and our goal," 25th-year Head Coach Beth Launiere said. "This season has the potential to be even better because of the experience that we have."

The Utes will boast a core of six seniors in their 2014 lineup with a combined total of 270 career starts.

"We have six seniors who have played most of their career," Launiere said. "We knew when we started in the Pac-12 that we were young, all freshmen and sophomores. Last season, we were juniors and seniors, but that junior class was the largest class. It is hard to lose Erin [Redd-Brandon] and Morgan [Odale], but whenever you have the amount of experience that we're going to have this year, it's pretty tough to bet against that."

Two of those seniors – Shelby Dalton and Chelsey Schofield – were selected to join elite teams that played in China last summer: Dalton with USA Volleyball's National Collegiate Team and Schofield with the Pac-12 All-Stars. The Utes hope that high-level experience will translate into success on the court in 2014.

"The experience that [Dalton] gained in 2013 on the Pac-12 All-Star Team was significant and showed up in her play, confidence and mental game," Launiere said. "I expect the same from [Schofield] and even another level from [Dalton]. Whenever you play at the level of competition, you get better. That's the bottom line. Not just physically, but confidence-wise and knowing that you can compete and play at that level is invaluable."

Launiere's veteran team focused on developing their respective all-around games during the offseason.

"Our goal in the spring was to train our hitters even more [in positions that they have not played a lot during their Utah careers], especially some of our experienced players," Launiere said.

One of the top blockers in the Pac-12, senior middle blocker Bailey Bateman, has been training to become more of a pivotal part of the Ute attack.

"[Bateman] is ready to take on more of an offensive role for us," Launiere said. "She owned that this spring and worked hard."

While the team has worked to expand its skill-set, Utah has not neglected its perennial strength: blocking. Utah has been second in the conference in blocks per set each of the last two seasons after taking third in 2011. The Utes were ranked ninth in the NCAA last season, sixth in 2012 and fifth in 2011.

"Being consistently good at blocking is what we do," Launiere said. "We just have a mentality and expectation in this program that we block balls. We've always had good size at the net and we train it pretty well so I don't expect it to be any different. In fact, we worked on it quite a bit last spring. It's part of what defines us. It's the most important thing for us to win, but it's significant in that it's a big part of our style of play. I expect to continue it."

Hitters

All of the hitters featured in the Utah attack will have opportunities to be six-rotation players in match situations on the court this season.

"The goal of the spring was to get everyone more time [as a six-rotation player]," Launiere said. "We lost one of our six-rotation players in [Odale], so we want to give everybody the opportunity to step into that role.

"All of the hitters will be playing both pins, right side and left side. [Dalton] could play right side with her eyes closed now, so we played her on the left. Same thing with [Schofield], she's played on the left so let's train her on the right for a couple of months. They all had great springs."

Dalton was and AVCA All-American Honorable Mention and AVCA All-Pacific North Region First Team pick as a junior in 2013. She paced team with 2.62 kills per set and was second on the squad with a .276 hitting percentage. The Moab, Utah native ranked third on team and 128th in the NCAA with 1.10 blocks per set.

"We trained [Dalton] on the left-side pretty exclusively this spring to see if it was a possibility to move her out there and playing her six rotations," Launiere said. "She did well and got much better in her all-around game. She passed every rotation and hit a lot of high left-side balls. We increased her role in the spring so we feel like we have a good option there."

Schofield has put up impressive numbers throughout her career. Last season, she registered 2.42 kills and 3.19 digs per set and featured 14 double-doubles with 16 matches with 10 or more kills and 25 with double-digits in digs.

"[Schofield] is a six-rotation player who is a very good passer, but we also worked her on the right side to increase our options and to see if that's a place where she could be successful."

Makenzie Moea'i turned in 1.85 kills, 0.57 digs and 0.61 blocks per set and hit .220 during her first season with the Utes. She made six starts and posted six double-figure kill outings to go with one double-double and one double-digit-dig effort

"[Moea'i] got more time playing all the way around," Launiere said. "She was playing on the right side in the fall and not passing as much. This spring, she worked on her passing and defense.

Freshmen Eliza Katoa and Adora Anae have played the left side during their entire careers so they gained valuable experience training on the right with the Utes this spring.

"[Katoa] came in the spring and took full advantage of the opportunity to train with us before her freshman year," Launiere said. "She made a lot of little technical changes, but she's just such a great athlete and she plays with a lot of fire. She's competitive and an exciting player to watch.

"[Anae] has skills to be a six-rotation player," Launiere said. "She's long and athletic, where Eliza is probably a smaller outside hitter, but jumps out of the gym. Adora is 6-1 with long arms and nice arm swing. She is a smooth athlete who played on one of the top club teams in the country."

Emma Kirst played both positions during her prep career at Bishop Gorman HS in Las Vegas.

"[Kirst] is more of a right-side, but has played some left side," Launiere said. "She has great size with a great arm swing. We're excited to watch her development as she gains strength. She can block very well on the right side."

Middle Blockers

Bateman has been at the center of Utah's impressive blocking effort over the last two seasons, finishing sixth in the Pac-12 and 55th in the NCAA with 1.27 blocks per set in 2013 and ninth in the NCAA and second in the Pac-12 with 1.54 blocks per set in 2012.

"Bailey comes back as one of the top blockers in the conference. We actually worked on [blocking] even more this spring and she's doing well."

Redshirt freshman Carly Trueman was sidelined last season with a hand injury.

"Carly played on the right side a little bit last fall before her injury, but moved back into the middle," Launiere said. "She's a phenomenal athlete who moves well. Her upside is very high. She made a lot of changes. She has a fair amount of training in the middle with a lot of work to do, but a lot of upside."

Brenna DeYoung was a first-team all-region and all-tournament team pick at Snow College in 2013 and ranked seventh in NJCAA blocking rankings.

"[DeYoung] made a lot of nice changes after coming from Snow College and worked very hard to get up to speed to our level," Launiere said. "Blocking is her strength and it was beneficial for her to be here this spring to figure out the speed of the game at this level."

Sophomore Alyssa Koenig made career debut last season against Prairie View A&M and had two kills on four swings in the match.

"[Koenig] is a long athlete who was worked hard at her strength and her game improved a lot. We have some very nice options between all of them to fill the middle position."

Setters

Senior Kalee Kirby and junior Kendall Cygan combined for 11.09 assists and 3.64 digs per set last season for the Utes.

"Kalee and Kendall come in with a tremendous amount of experience after setting this team last year," Launiere said. "They both worked hard at their technique this spring and also both of them did a very nice job of working with their hitters. We're going to go into this season better prepared with the combination of setters and hitters."

"[Kirby] is an impressive athlete who works hard and it's exciting to see that she has made some nice changes to play at this level.

"[Cygan] is a competitor. She's gained some good experience over the last two years and we expect the same thing from her in 2014."

Freshman Jessie Jorgensen will be counted on for depth as she develops while learning the Utah system.

"[Jorgensen] is a great athlete and that's going to allow her to develop fast. She has nice hands and is going to pick things up and learn fast."

Defensive Specialists/Liberos

Senior Lea Adolph returns to stabilize the Ute back row after earning Pac-12 All-Academic First Team recognition in 2013 and posting a 2.66 dig-per-set average. The Waltrop, Germany native led Utah with 0.25 service aces per set and recorded three performances of 20 or more digs.

"Lea has so much experience now," Launiere said. "Technically, she's so efficient. She's worked very hard to be a very good technical volleyball player. She's a good athlete who works hard. She's by far one of our best passers and her passing is extremely important to what we do."

Sophomore Tess Sutton emerged to take on a key role in Utah's back row during the last half of the 2013 campaign. She started the last 15 matches at libero and turned in a total of 179 digs to average 3.58 per set during that stretch.

"Tess had a lot of opportunity last year also," Launiere said. "She is an athlete and a competitor. She made some nice improvement this spring, her first chance to really make some changes. Both [Adolph and Sutton] come in with a lot of good experience. They both played last year and it's a great situation for us."

Freshman Caroline Sipiora will provide a backup option while she works to get back into true form.

"[Sipiora] was injured with two ACL surgeries, but she's cleared to go 100 percent," Launiere said. "She's an exciting player because she is a nice athlete and technically sound. It's just a matter of how fast she gets back to playing 100 percent with confidence."

McCall Phillips, a freshman from Las Vegas, joins the Ute back row after being featured as an outside hitter and defensive specialist at Palo Verde High School. Phillips was First-Team All-State selection, Sunset Region MVP in 2013 as well as a first-Team Sunset Region pick in 2012 and 2013.

"[Phillips] is a tremendous athlete who is a little bit raw," Launiere said. "She hasn't played just back row. She was a hitter also. As we work with her just in the back row, she'll make some nice improvements fast because she is a nice athlete."

Schedule

Seventeen of Utah's 31 regular-season matches will be against 10 teams that qualified for the NCAA Tournament last season, including Final Four qualifier Washington. The Utes will also appear in 14 matches that will be televised live on the Pac-12 Networks

The Utes will play their home matches in two venues this season, the Huntsman Center and Crimson Court. Utah went 8-5 in its first season with the Huntsman Center as its permanent home and has won 75 percent of its all-time matches in Crimson Court (189-64, .750).

"We came to love the Huntsman Center," Launiere said. "Obviously, we have such a tradition and love for Crimson Court, but we didn't realize we were going to love playing in the Huntsman Center as much as we did. Crimson Court has its own charm and its own history. We'll be very comfortable in there."

Go to utahtickets.com or call 801-581-UTIX (884) for more information on the 2014 campaign. Season tickets in an assigned seat on the floor can be purchased for just $75, while a season pass for general admission in the lower bowl are available for $50.

Beth Launiere
Head Coach
25th Season
471-290, .619

Reinvigorated by a move into a renovated Jon M. Huntsman Center, Utah head coach Beth Launiere and the University of Utah volleyball team now have their sights set on moving up the ranks during their fourth season in the Pac-12 Conference.

Launiere (471-290, .619) is beginning her 25th year at the helm of the Utah volleyball program after taking over in 1990, when she looked to straighten out a team that won only one match in 1989. In her 25th year, Launiere has sculpted the Utes into a top-25 power. The Utes have qualified for the NCAA Tournament 11 times, won six Mountain West Conference titles (regular season and tournament combined) and have recorded 14, 20-win seasons.

Launiere has earned plenty of recognition as the leader of the Utes, she was named the AVCA West Region Coach of the Year three times (2001, `06, `08) and the MWC Coach of the Year (2004, `06, `08) of the Year three times.

Launiere's ability to attract top-notch talent has helped take Utah to the forefront of the national scene. She has guided seven Utes to All-America honors while 11 have garnered all-region accolades. The 2011 freshman class was ranked 20th in the nation by prepvolleyball.com, while the 2005 freshman class was ranked the eighth-best by Volleyball Magazine.

Launiere's accomplishments earned her the opportunity to serve as an assistant coach for the Pac-12 All-Stars in June of 2013, where she toured China with 13 of the Pac-12 best volleyball players, including current Ute right-side hitter Shelby Dalton.

Launiere also coached for USA Volleyball during each summer from 2009 through 2011. She coached the USA/BIP Team at the 2011 European Global Challenge in Belgrade, Serbia and Pula, Croatia last July and was head coach of the USA National A2 Program in May of 2010 at the Open Division of the USA Open National Championships in Phoenix, Ariz. Launiere was also on the sidelines as an assistant coach for the U.S. Women's National Team at the 2009 FIVB World Grand Prix in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, Li Miao, Chinese Taipei and Bangkok, Thailand.

Launiere's impact on the sport goes well beyond the court. She has guided volleyball on the national stage as the AVCA President during the 2009 calendar year and as the President-Elect in 2008. She has also been a member of the AVCA Board of Directors since 2004 and served a three-year term as the Division I Volleyball Coaches Representative from 2005 to 2007 after being a part of the AVCA's All-America Committee for five years.

On the court, Launiere has helped Utah volleyball reached new heights on both the conference and national levels. In 11 years of MWC play, Utah won three tournament championships (2001, `02, `05) and three regular-season titles (2004, `06, `08), while qualifying for the NCAA Tournament 11 times.

The Utes have reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament nine times with regional semifinal appearances in 2001 and 2008. In 2001, Utah fell to eventual national champion Stanford, 3-1. Utah was the only team to win a game against the Cardinal during the tournament. In 2008, the Utes swept Furman and host Clemson in the first two rounds before being defeated by Washington in Seattle.

The 2008 team went 26-6 overall and won their sixth overall MWC title in school history after starting the MWC season 0-2. Utah went on to take 14 consecutive conference victories against conference foes. Lori Baird was the MWC Player of the Year, while Launiere earned the third MWC Coach of the Year honor of her career.

In 2006, Utah set the school record for wins in a season (28), set the school and conference record for league wins (16) and became only the second MWC school ever to go undefeated in conference play. The team won a school-record 25 straight during the season and was ranked as high as ninth in the AVCA poll. Led by Emillie Toone, who finished second in the country in blocking, Utah led the nation in blocks (3.71). Launiere was voted both the MWC and AVCA West Region Coach of the Year for the second time in her career.

Launiere led Utah to its first national ranking in 2000 after defeating No. 1 Stanford, 3-2, on Sept. 5, 2000. The next week, the Utes appeared in the Sept. 18th AVCA Top 25 poll, coming in at No. 18. Utah earned its highest ranking in school history on Sept. 2, 2002, when it was ranked eighth.

Launiere arrived at Utah in 1990 and took over a team that had compiled a 1-32 record the previous year. Inspiring a turnaround in the program, she recorded Utah's first winning season in seven years (18-15) in 1992, just her third year.

Utah earned its first postseason berth in 1993, placing third in the NIVC. The Utes led the nation in blocks that year, while Mikki Kane-Barton was the top individual blocker in the country. It was the first time any Western Athletic Conference team earned the nation's top rank in blocking.

In addition to seven AVCA All-Americans, Erin Redd-Brandon was named All-Pac-12 Honorable Mention in 2012 and Chelsey Schofield earned Pac-12 All-Freshman Team Honorable Mention recognition in 2011. Seventeen of Launiere's players earned 21 different All-MWC honors and 11 have been named all-region. Kim Turner (2002-03), Airial Salvo (2006) and Lori Baird (2008) were each named MWC Player of the Year. Launiere's recruits have also rewritten the record book, holding career records in kills, attempts, assists, aces, digs, total blocks and hitting efficiency.

Before Shelby Dalton played with the Pac-12 All-Stars in China last summer, many of her players have represented Utah internationally in various US Olympic Development programs. Several players have gone on to compete in the USA Volleyball system, including current players Dalton, Schofield, Morgan Odale, along with Turner, Salvo, Toone, Baird, Sydney Anderson, Lyndsey Henderson, Danielle Killpack, Abby Simmons and Kelsie Kartchner. Danielle Leichliter trained overseas with Vanajan RC.

Prior to coming to Utah, the Grand Rapids, Mich., native was as an assistant coach at Illinois (1988-89). The Illini went 57-12 during Launiere's stay and made it to two NCAA Tournaments, including a 1988 Final Four showing.

An assistant at Ferris State (Mich.) from 1985-87, Launiere helped the Bulldogs win three postseason bids, including an appearance in the 1987 NCAA Division II Final Four.

Launiere graduated in 1985 from Aquinas College (Mich.). She earned a bachelor's degree in business administration and economics and has a master's in sports administration from Illinois.

Brian Doyon
Assistant Coach
Sixh Season

Brian Doyon is in his sixth season as a member of the Utah volleyball coaching staff. Serving as Utah's recruiting coordinator and working with the Ute blockers, Doyon brings a vast amount of experience in many different aspects of the game and has helped Utah maintain its position as one of the top programs in the Pac-12 Conference and the nation.

While instructing Utah's blockers, Doyon guided the Utes to one of the most successful stretches on the block in recent memory during the 2011, 2012 and 2013 seasons. Utah was ninth in the NCAA and second in the Pac-12 with 2.89 blocks per set in 2013. Erin Redd-Brandon was second in the league and 19th in the NCAA with 1.39 blocks per set.

The Utes finished sixth in the NCAA and second in the Pac-12 with a 3.00 block-per-set average as a team in 2012. Including league-games only, Utah improved to second in the league with 2.94 blocks per set during Pac-12 matches, while Bailey Bateman finished ninth in the country and second in the Pac-12 with 1.53 blocks per set.

In 2011, Utah was fifth in the NCAA and third in the Pac-12 with 3.00 blocks per set and turned in 2.90 blocks per set in league competition. Doyon mentored Redd-Brandon to a 16th-place finish in the NCAA's individual blocking rankings, as well as third place in the Pac-12. Also last season, Danielle Killpack was 28th in the country and fourth in the conference.

On the recruiting front, Doyon was instrumental in bringing in the 2011 freshman class that ranked 20th in the nation by prepvolleyball.com.

Prior to joining the Ute coaching staff, Doyon served as the head coach of Battle Mountain High School in Vail, Colo., for six years. He compiled a 113-38 (.748) record and won the 2006 state championship. His Battle Mountain teams posted three 20-win seasons and earned three top-five finishes at the state tournament.

He was named the 2006 Rocky Mountain News 4A Coach of the Year after mentoring 2006 AVCA High School Senior All-Americans Crystin Rodrick and Britney Brown. That season, Doyon earned the 2007 Colorado High School Coaches Association 4A Coach of the Year award.

Doyon was also the assistant director of Terry Pettit's Summit of Extraordinary Coaching, where he assisted in developing and hosting a seminar for college coaches. Doyon also assisted Colorado State's Elite Skills, Team, and Collegiate Prep camps since 2006, and served as the director of Rocky Mountain Volleyball Camps and the sports coordinator of the Vail Recreation District since 2004.

Doyon also served a two-year term as the head coach of the Avalanche Volleyball Club in Edwards, Colo., from 2002 to 2004. He also was an evaluator at the USA High Performance Tryout in Denver, Colo., in 2005.

Doyon's collegiate playing career was with the Syracuse club volleyball team in 1993 and 1994, where he was a two-year starting middle blocker. He graduated from SUNY Environmental Science and Forestry in 1995 with a bachelor's degree in Landscape Architecture and began his coaching career as an assistant at Fayetteville Manlius High School in Syracuse, N.Y., in 1993. He married his wife, Kate, last summer.

JJ Riley
Assistant Coach
Third Season

JJ Riley completed his third season as assistant coach for the University of Utah volleyball program.

Riley brings an extensive and diverse volleyball background to the Utah coaching staff on both the collegiate and club levels as well as on both the men's and women's side of the game. He was in his second season as an assistant coach with the USC men's volleyball team and has coached for the men's and women's teams at Pepperdine. Riley has coached in two NCAA Final Fours between the two programs, including last season with the Trojans, and he also played in the NCAA national championship match as a setter for the Pepperdine Waves.

He has also been successful on the club level, as he coached the Southern California Volleyball Club 16 boy's team and led the squad to a bronze medal at the 2011 Junior Olympics.

Before USC, Riley was an assistant with the Pepperdine women's team for four years (2000-03) and helped the Waves reach the NCAA Regional Final for the first time in school history.

Riley also served as an assistant coach for two seasons with the Pepperdine men's team in 2000 and 2010. In 2000, he helped the Waves advance to the NCAA Final Four, while the 2010 team finished among the nation's leaders in four different statistical categories: third in hitting percentage and assists, fifth in kills-per-set average and sixth in block average. Riley mentored First-Team All-American setter Kasey Crider, who led the nation in assists that season.

Riley coached high school and club volleyball in Bend, Ore., from 2004 to 2009. He was the girls' varsity head coach for three years at Summit High School, where he led the school to its first-ever state tournament appearance in 2006, which took sixth in the 5A division. In club volleyball, he founded the Oregon Volleyball Academy, where he directed 16 teams and was head coach of the 18-1 boy's team. He also coached with the Oregon Suns and Sports Shack club programs.

As a collegiate player, Riley was a setter at Pepperdine from 1995 to 1999 and was named a Second-Team All-American in 1998 as the Waves won the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation title and reached the NCAA Championship match. He ended his career as Pepperdine's all-time assist leader with 3,788 and currently stands fourth in the school's record book. As a prep, Riley was an all-state player at Punahou High School in Honolulu (Hawaii), helping the team win two state titles. He also won gold, silver and bronze medals at the Junior Olympics in club volleyball.

Riley graduated from Pepperdine in 1999 with a Bachelor of Science degree in Physical Education with an emphasis in Sports Medicine and Athletic Training. He is an NESTA certified strength and conditioning coach and is SAQ certified. Riley is currently pursuing a Master of Arts in Coaching and Athletic Administration through correspondence courses conducted by Concordia University in Irvine, Calif.

His wife, the former Emily Rothman, played volleyball at Pepperdine from 1998-2001. The couple has a 2-year-old son named Rex.

Kate Holdeman
Director of Operations
First Season

Kate Holdeman joins the Utah volleyball staff for her first season as the program's Director of Operations.

Holdeman has coached around the Salt Lake City area since 2005, including head coaching stints for the Elite 14s and 17s teams for the High Country Volleyball Club from 2011-13 and the Elite 17s and 18s teams at the Utah Juniors Volleyball Club from 2009-11. She has also served as an instructor at the University of Utah's Volleyball Summer Camps since 2006.

Prior to this appointment, Holdeman was a Facilities Engineer at BioFire Diagnostics in Salt Lake City (June 2013-June 2014), Hill Air Force Base in Ogden, Utah (June 2009 to 2013) and an Engineering Intern at Northrop Grumman in Clearfield, Utah.

Holdeman was a four-year letter winner for the Utes as an outside hitter from 2004 through 2007. She had 504 career kills, 738 digs, 116 blocks and 58 service aces. She was named the Mountain West Conference Player of the Week on Nov. 19, 2007 after leading Utah to a 2-0 week, including an upset of No. 25 UNLV. Holdeman was also named to the MWC Tournament team and averaged 2.76 kills per set during her senior campaign.

The former Kate Robison is married to Scott Holdeman and the couple is expecting their first child, a girl, this fall. She earned a Bachelor of Science in Mechanical Engineering from the University of Utah in May of 2009.

Corina Bayer
Video and Statistics Coordinator
First Season

Corina Beyer will become a part of the Ute coaching staff for her first season as Video and Statistics Coordinator in 2014.

after quickly building an accomplished coaching resume, including stints with two of the Pacific Northwest's top collegiate programs.

Beyer comes to Utah after serving as an assistant coach at both Fresno State during the 2013 season and the University of Great Falls from January-July 2013. She was also the head coach at Northern Oklahoma from August-December July 2012.

Beyer was as a volunteer assistant coach at the University of Idaho, her alma mater, from 2008-11. She assisted the Vandals in scouting, video coordination, practice instruction, and various organizational details.

Beyer's collegiate playing career began at Washington State where she was a 2006 Pac-10 All-Freshman Team Honorable Mention pick after she ranked sixth in the league in assists and ninth on the school's single-season assist list.

As a prep, Beyer was a first-team all-state choice, a four-time Intermountain League MVP and team captain for Timberlake High School in Spirit lake, Idaho. She helped the school make its first three state tournament trips. Her club team finished third at club nationals in 2003, and she was a 2005 national all-tournament team choice. She also lettered in basketball and track and field.

A 2010 graduate of Idaho, she received a B.S. degree in physical education from the Exercise Science and Health Department.

Damara Farkas
Athletic Trainer
First Season

Damara Farkas is in her first season with the University of Utah volleyball program as the team's Athletic Trainer.

Farkas graduated from Kent State this past December with a Bachelor of Science degree in athletic training. Farkas worked with the Golden Flash football, women's gymnastics and volleyball teams while attending KSU and she most recently completed an athletic training internship with the football program. In her time at KSU Farkas also worked as a first responder for all of KSU's summer sports camps and provided first aid care at the Ohio Special Olympics.

A native of Louisville, Ohio, Farkas earned her first bachelor's degree in psychology from Bucknell University in 2009. While attending Bucknell, she served as a student assistant to the head athletic trainer for both the football and men's lacrosse teams.

Farkas is currently enrolled in the Athletic Training Graduate Program at the University of Utah.

2013 Review

The University of Utah volleyball team returned to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2008 and earned a 3-1 first-round victory over Yale in University Park, Pa.

This was Utah's first time in the tournament since 2008 and the 11th appearance in school history. All 11 trips have come since 1998.

The Utes finished 28th in the NCAA's final RPI rankings and ended with a 21-13 overall record. Utah posted a 9-11 mark in Pac-12 Conference play, which tied with Colorado for seventh in the league standings.

This was also Utah's first season with 20 or more wins since 2008 and the 14th under Ute head coach Beth Launiere.

Utes in the NCAA Tournament

Utah now holds an 11-11 all-time record in the NCAA Tournament, all under Launiere.

Second-Round Recap

Utah lost in three sets at No. 2 national seed Penn State (25-14, 25-15, 25-11) on Dec. 7 in Rec Hall. The Utes held an 8.0-7.0 edge in team blocks over the Nittany Lions.

First-Round Recap

Four Utes reached double-figures in kills and Utah defeated Yale (27-29, 25-15, 26-24, 25-16) on Friday, Dec. 6 in an NCAA Tournament First-Round match in Rec Hall.

Utah outhit Yale for the match, .342-.226, and outblocked the Bulldogs, 12.0-8.0, to go with a 70-64 edge in digs.

It's Not How You Start

The Utes won four of their last six matches in which they have lost the first set of a match.

The trend started on Nov. 17 with Utah coming back for a 3-1 win at Arizona State after a 25-22 setback to the Sun Devils.
Oregon won the first frame Nov. 22 against Oregon and would go on to take the match, but the Utes bounced back with a 3-1 win over Oregon State on Nov. 24 after losing the first set, 25-23, and would go on to a 3-1 win on Nov. 29 at UCLA after dropping the first frame, 25-19. On Dec. 6, Utah came back to defeat Yale, 3-1, after suffering a 29-27 first-set setback to the Bulldogs.

The Utes were 7-12 overall this season when dropping the first set of a match.

Efficiency Pays Off

Utah was 21-2 this season when posting a higher hitting percentage than its opponents. The only matches where the Utes did not come away with a win in this scenario was when they outhit No. 3 Washington on Nov. 1 and Colorado on Nov. 27.

Getting Defensive

Utah forced 18 of its opponents this season to hit under .200. Ute foes combined to hit .188, which was sixth in the Pac-12 stats.

Utes on the Block

Utah was second in the conference with 2.89 blocks per set and the Utes were ranked ninth in the NCAA. Utah outblocked its opponents 26 times through 34 matches this season. The Utes were 21-5 when outblocking their opponents in 2013.

Pac-12 Progression

Nine wins in Pac-12 play this season was the most for the Utah program since joining the conference in 2011.

The Utes are 20-42 all-time in Pac-12 play with a 9-11 mark this season and going 6-16 in 2011 and 5-15 in 2012. The Utes' all-time record in conference play stands at 293-241 (.548), while Launiere is 211-151 (.583) against conference foes.

Dalton Earns Honorable Mention AVCA All-American

Junior right-side hitter Shelby Dalton (Moab, Utah) was named to the AVCA's All-American Honorable Mention list and All-Pacific South First Team.

Dalton led the team with 2.62 kills per set this season, finished second on the squad with a .276 hitting percentage (minimum five attack attempts per match).

Dalton was third on the team, 12th in the Pac-12 and 129th in the NCAA with 1.10 blocks per set in addition to earning a spot on the Pac-12 All-Academic Second Team.

Dalton had 20 double-digit-kill matches (28 career), including Utah's six of Utah's last eight matches and was also named to the all-tournament teams at the Utah Classic and North Texas Invitational.

Dalton registered 13 kills and six blocks at California (10/13) and tied her season high with seven blocks at Oregon State (10/18).

Dalton tied career high for the second time with 19 kills on a .468 hitting percentage against Arizona State (10/24). She hit .333 for 10 kills (10-2-24) against No. 3 Washington (11/1) and tied career high with eight blocks against Cal (11/7).

She then hit .519 for 16 kills with just two errors on 27 swings to go with seven blocks in Utah's win at Arizona State (11/17).

Dalton finished the regular season in impressive fashion by hitting .455 with 12 kills at UCLA (11/29) and then posted 10 kills to go with five blocks and four digs in first round of NCAA Tournament against Yale (12/6).

Bragging on (Redd) Brandon

Senior middle blocker Erin Redd-Brandon (Spanish Fork, Utah) finished the season second in the Pac-12 and 20th in the NCAA with 1.39 blocks per set.

Redd-Brandon hit for a team-high .329 percentage this season, which ranked 14th in the Pac-12 and 120th in the country. She went for 2.36 kills per set and owned a .325 hitting percentage against league opponents. She posted four double-doubles this season and seven for her career with 11 double-digit-kill performances and four contests with 10 or more blocks.

Redd-Brandon received Utah's first-ever weekly award from the Pac-12 as she was named Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week and earned the award twice this season. She was first recognized on Sept. 2 after finishing the opening weekend of the season with a team-high 1.69 blocks per set, which included 22 block assists, to lead the Ute defense at the net on the way to a 3-0 record and a Utah Classic title

Redd-Brandon earned her second Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week award on Oct. 28 after leading an impressive Utah block last weekend to help the Utes claim their first-ever Pac-12 weekend sweep with victories over ASU and No. 25 Arizona.

In NCAA Tournament play, Redd-Brandon totaled 12 kills on 21 swings with only one error for a .524 hitting percentage to go with three blocks in the second round at Penn State (12/7).

She posted nine kills with just one attack error on 14 attempts for a .571 hitting percentage in first round of NCAA Tournament against Yale (12/6) and also chipped in five blocks and three digs.

Redd-Brandon was fourth in school history in both career total blocks (574) and career block assists (542). As the 14th member of Utah's 1,000-kill club, Redd-Brandon's 1,132 career kills stands ninth in school history.

Morgan Maxes Out

Senior outside hitter Morgan Odale (Star, Idaho) turned in her 10th double-double on the year (31st of her career) Dec. 6 against Yale with 12 digs and 11 kills.
